

Robert Burns

North Shore Law is delighted to welcome Vancouver born and raised Robert Burns to our company. For over three decades Rob has focused on civil litigation including: personal injury claims, insurance litigation, commercial litigation and maritime law. As a member of the Canadian Bar Association, Vancouver Bar Association, and the Trial Lawyers Association of BC, Rob is an eminently qualified and respected addition to our team. Rob was also one of the co-authors of the original BC Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Practice Manual. So, if you have a claim – give Rob a call.

OTHER STARRING ROLES

When it comes to sports you'll find Rob is a member of the UBC Sports Hall of Fame in his favourite sport – Rugby. Rob made his mark playing rugby with the Meraloma Club, the Legends Rugby Club and the University of British Columbia.

His other interests include boats and boat building, singing, music and a little light theatre on the side. To find out more visit our website.

Congratulations to Patricia Bond on becoming a Bencher!

The diversely experienced and wonderful Pat Bond was appointed Bencher on January 1st, 2010. She will sit on the board of directors for the Law Society of BC for a two year term. What an honour to be elected by your peers for this highly demanding role! Not that anyone is really surprised by this. Pat has been practicing primarily family law for more than 20 years. She is a seasoned litigator, a collaborative lawyer, mediator and parenting coordinator.

In addition to her appointment as a Bencher, Patricia also recently received the 2010 Trial Lawyers Association of BC Bar Award in recognition of her tenacious devotion to clients, her passion for justice, her many volunteer efforts to improve legal aid, and her commitment to the highest level of ethical and practice standards within the profession.

Patricia is a contributing author to various family law manuals and sits on the editorial board of the BC Family Practice Manual, a publication of the Continuing Legal Education Society (CLE). She has published in journals, been a guest instructor for the Professional Legal Training Course, People's Law School, the Canadian Labour Congress and the University of BC Law School.

Be sure to keep up date and read our Blog at www.northshorelaw.com/blog